At a special meeting of the Board of property in Lancaster, June 24, 1799.

Present,—

Daniel Brodhead, Sec. Gen.
John Hall, Secretary,
Francis Johnston, Reg. Gen. } of the Land office.

The petition of Thomas Stewardson on behalf of himself and the other trustees for the estate of Samuel Caldwell, surviving partner of James Meese, bearing date Philadelphia, 5th Month 17th 1799, stated as follows, viz. That a certain John Collins had in consequence of fraudulent deeds poll, obtained patents for two certain tracts of land, one situate in the county of Northumberland, surveyed to Samuel Caldwell in pursuance of a warrant dated in 1774; and the other situate now in Luzerne county, surveyed to said Caldwell by a warrant also dated in 1774—and requested that patents might be granted, for the said tracts, to William Crammond, Edward Tilghman, John Ashley, and Thomas Stewardson, trustees of the estate of Samuel Caldwell, surviving partner of James Meese, as the said two tracts were part of the estate of Meese and Caldwell.

Whereupon the Board having considered the same, ordered that at least sixty days notice be given in one of the Philadelphia newspapers, and in the Lancaster Journal to the said Collins or his assigns, to appear before the Board on the first Monday in October next, to shew cause if any he or they have, why patents should not issue for the said two tracts to the said trustees agreeably to the prayer of the said petition.

Domestic Articles.

LANCASTER, July 6.

At a meeting at the Court-House in the Borough of Lancaster, on Wednesday the 19th ult. the following Address was unanimously agreed to and signed by the gentlemen present.

To the Freemen of Lancaster County.

FRIENDS AND FELLOW-CITIZENS,

IMPRESSED with a firm belief that a happy choice of a GOVERNOR, at the next general Election, for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, will be of the utmost national importance, we have assembled for the purpose of deliberating freely upon the Subject, and now have the pleasure to submit the result of the deliberations to you.

On so interesting an occasion, the system we have adopted, is not only proper, but indispensible. We should not slumber while our enemies are awake. There will always be many thousands of Voters in a state so extensive as ours, who may not know or understand the true characters of the Candidates who are offered to them. Without due information, therefore on so essential a point, being in some manner conveyed to them, the most upright men might be induced to throw away their Votes upon their worst enemy; upon the tool of a Faction; or upon an arbitrary Demagogue.

We have therefore, for ourselves, unanimously and firmly resolved to vote for, and to use every fair exertion in our power, at the next general election, to support JAMES ROSS, of Pittsburg, as a proper person to fill the important office of Governor; and we confidently recommend him to you, as a man of the first talents, and of unexceptionable Character; sober, moral and religious; In the full vigour of Life; his understanding unimpaired by disgraceful habits of Vice and Intemperance; his Judgement correct and cultured with assiduous Care; a steady friend to his Country, and to the Constitutions of the United States and of this Commonwealth. He is personally known to many of us; and those of us to whom he is individually unknown, have a confidence in his Character, satisfactory from the sources from which it is derived.

It may not be inexpedient to accompany this recommendation with a few general observations which we deem pertinent to the occasion.

Every reflecting man who views, and can understand the situation of the United States, and the nature of the compact they have formed, must be convinced that their honor, their Independence and National Glory can remain no longer than their Union shall continue inviolate and unimpaired: and that a separation of the States must eventually involve the ruin of all of them. A system so important to our happiness ought to be watched with the most jealous Care, and anxiously supported by every honest and virtuous man. He cannot be a friend to your Government, (but on the other hand he must be its worst Enemy) who would endeavour to weaken its Energy or undermine its influence. To create in your minds a distrust of the men you may have chosen to administer your Government; to alarm you, and cause your hearts to rankle with a mean jealousy of its powers; insidiously to make you discontented with the laws, till it break out into direct opposition and attempts to impede their execution are the base arts by which corrupt and designing men assail the Constitutions they wish to destroy; and no surer means can be devised to overturn the liberties of the people. The result is inevitable! Treason and Sedition must be put down, or the Government itself must fall! The arm of authority must become stronger or the whole Fabric will be shaken! The land will be cursed with all the Evils of anarchy; and a people sick of licentiousness, will be willing to submit to any kind of Government. Too enfeebled, and too corrupt to defend their antient Liberties, the authority over them will be usurped by those who may have misled them; or some wealthy and powerful Individual may erect a monarchy on their prostrate necks! Such history tells us, has been the fate of many of the republics of the old world, and, if we do not preserve our Virtue and Integrity, such will be the fate of ours!

Countrymen, we are blessed at present with one of the best constitutions in the world; and well calculated to protect us from Danger from abroad if we can defend it from the assaults of its Enemies within. It is a sacred Duty which we owe, to transmit it unimpaired to posterity! Yet there is a party among us, who falsely call themselves Republicans, who are opposed at the whole administration of the Federal Government, and under the pretence of supporting the Constitution are assailing it with all the Arts that malice can invent. They are the Friends of France more than of their own Country; and under the influence of French Principles, they are struggling to divide the people from their Government. They have opposed every salutary measure of public Defence; and by slanderous Falsehoods they have vilified every system that has been devised to raise a revenue to protect us from foreign oppression, or to secure our trade. To be convinced of these truths it is necessary only to review the transactions of a few years past. To divide in order to destroy us is obviously the Design of France; and the more she can weaken the general Government, the more easy will be her conquest; and it is therefore a primary object with her partizans, by any and every means, to elect, into the offices of the State Governments, men who are decidedly opposed to the general administration. By disorganizing the parts, the whole must eventually fall. France has already conquered more by her principles than with the Sword! It is a dreadful warfare!—It is with her own Philosophy that she first corrupts the heart; and then triumphs over a weakened and degenerate people. Under the pretence of overthrowing Priestcraft, she has put down the altars of GOD, has shaken the foundation of all Religion, and let loose a mighty flood of immorality upon the world! it is thus she wars upon Mankind. Behold the Fate of Switzerland once the happy seat of Liberty the native Soil of many of your Ancestors, how she languishes under French oppression! Behold Italy & Holland! their Commerce annihilated, their property seized by their French Friends, and new Governments forced upon them and changed at the pleasure of their new Masters.—No longer free Republics, but tributary Provinces of France!

None of us, Fellow Citizens, would wish to behold the United States thus humbled. Let us then exert ourselves before it be too late. Let us banish from among us the insidious principles of France, and consider her friends, and those who justify her conquests and her oppressions, not only as the Enemies of the peace and happiness of our beloved country, but as the Enemies of the human Race! Let us support our own Government, and it will be able to protect us; if we are meanly jealous of it, it must fall, and we must perish with it. We cannot exist as a nation, unless we support it, not only with our purses, but with our Veneration and Confidence. Let not our enemies gain an advantage over us by their Industry, while we are inactive at home: but let us exert ourselves to the utmost to prevent any man from being elected into office, who is either a friend to French measures, or who is opposed, at this interesting period, to the laws and administration of his own country. Let us consider it as a criminal to remain at home on the day of election, and it will then be shown that the friends of good order and government are still the strongest, in Pennsylvania.

FRIENDS AND FELLOW CITIZENS,

A more important period than the present has not occurred in the history of the United States. It may be said with propriety that this is the time to try the hearts of men. It is by his conduct in the day of trouble, by his exertions and vigilence to oppose the machinations of the tools of a faction who are basely plotting against the dearest interests of their country, that the PATRIOT may be known. It is not by inactivity and repose that we can protect the Independence, or preserve the peace, happiness and prosperity of our infant nation! We therefore call upon you, as Freemen who value Liberty, to aid us with your hearts and hands on this momentous occasion. You know us, and must know that we have no motives but the good of our country. We are determined to struggle to preserve our Religion, our Laws and our Liberty to the last, and with the blessing of GOD, we humbly trust our exertions will be successful.

We are your friends and Fellow Citizens.

COOPERSTOWN, June 27.

The day before yesterday, and the evening of the same day presented to the inhabitants of Cooperstown and its vicinity, a spectacle surpassing every thing of the kind, which has been witnessed in this country since it has been penetrated by civilized beings—Towards evening, the clouds gathered and produced unusual darkness, as to render lighted candles necessary an hour before sunset—soon the rain poured from the clouds with unusual torrents accompanied by heavy winds, and the lightning emitted an almost constant blaze, accompanyed by his attendant companion, thunder; in the evening the flashes were almost incessant, and the rain which fell, during the night, raised the waters of Lake Otsego, the surface of which covers 20,000 acres, from two to three feet—a circumstance which has never occurred within the knowledge of the oldest inhabitant of this country in the same time.

The damage done by the lightning is considerable, the house of Mr. Waldo, of Cherry Valley has been struck and injured, and another in Middlefield, several cattle killed, persons injured, but one killed as we have heard—vast damage has been done by the destruction of crops, bridges, mills, mill-dams and tan-works.

A grist-mill in Burlington, was carried down stream by the rapidity of the torrent, with such force and effect, that, the first discoverable remains of the mill were the mill-stones, the nearest of which were found 50 rods below the site of the mill.

By this Day's Mail.

NEW-YORK, July 11.

Last evening arrived here the ship Olive, Capt. M'Call, from Cadiz, from which place she sailed on the 23d of May.

We are no longer in doubt about the sailing and course of the French and Spanish fleets; for an intelligent gentleman who arrived in the above ship, has favoured us with the following

Important Minute.

"The French fleet, consisting of 23 sail of the line, 3 three deckers, passed the Streights on the 5th of May—destination not known.

"The Spanish Admiral Massaredo, with 17 sail. 5 three deckers, passed the Streights the 14th May.

"Lord St. Vincents, with 18 sail, 8 three deckers, passed the Streights on the 10th May.

"British (name of the commander not recollected) 5 sail. 1 three decker, passed the Streights the 18th or 19th May.

"Admiral Nelson, with 14 or 16 74's was in the Streights; besides

"4 Portuguese 74's, and

"14 sail of Turkish and Russian ships of war, exclusive of Neapolitans."

Thus we see, that there are now in the Mediterranean, about 100 sail of heavy ships of war, that must, if they have not already, partake of the battle of the Mediterranean, which, in all probability, will be more bloody than that of the Nile.

One of the French 74's put into Cadiz before the Olive sailed, where she remained, being disabled.

There had been a French Admiral at Cadiz previous to the sailing of the Spanish fleet, but had returned to Brest

Left at Cadiz the ship Columbia. The Union sailed for New York the night before the Olive.

On Sunday arrived the brig Peggy, Capt. Reynolds, 23 days from Kingston Jamaica. Left there the brig Juno, Price, sent in there for salvage, having been taken in a few hours after she left the port of Barracoa for Baltimore, and shortly afterwards retaken by a British frigate.

We have by this vessel received papers to the 31st of May; the few extracts from them follow:

Kingston, May 29.

The American brig Adventure, Capt. Harding, from Savannah bound to this port, taken by a Spanish privateer schooner having on board 30 men with small arms, and retaken by his Majesty's ship Albicore, arrived yesterday.

His Majesty's ship Camilla, Capt. Larking, arrived yesterday at Port-Royal, in 3 days from Gonaives, having on board General Maitland, Colonels Nightingale, Harcourt and Grant, Capt. Reynolds and Dr. Wright.

We understand, that the intercourse with St. Domingo, has been so far settled, as that two ports are to be immediately opened for the admission of British and American bottoms. General Maitland, it is said, returns shortly to Europe in the Camilla.

We are sorry to mention, that his Majesty's ship Queen, soon after leaving Port-Royal, ran aground on the side of the Keys, and was not got off when our latest advices left Port-Royal last night.

May 31.

Wednesday evening arrived at Port-Royal, a French cartel schooner from Gonaives—Mr. Deasy, Secretary to the American Consul-General in St. Domingo, has arrived in her with Dispatches to General Maitland.

Our accounts respecting the situation of his Majesty's ship Queen, leaves us still some ground to hope she may yet reach Port-Royal harbour, they have we understand, succeeded in bringing all her guns to Port-Royal, and from the great exertions used in getting a vast number of pumps to work, they have very much reduced the water in her hold.

☞ The following Document is handed to us as official. It is a circular letter from the Government of Spain to its viceroys, Intendants, &c, and was left with us last evening in the Spanish Language, by a respectable mercantile friend; who received it from his correspondent in Philadelphia, by yesterday's mail. The intelligence it conveys is important to the commercial interest of this country; and, on this ground, we lose no time in having it translated for our paper of this morning. The original is in the hands of the Editor, and is open to the inspection of any of his readers who may wish to see it. [Merc. Ad.

(CIRCULAR.)

His Majesty's constant watchfulness for the welfare of his beloved subjects, and the representations which have been made to him of the evil consequences arising to our colonies, from the want of exportation of produce, and the scarcity of dry goods and other indispensible articles of importation, which threatened every class of the community with evils of an irreparable nature, were the motives of his Majesty's mercy in issuing the Royal Edict, of the 18th of November, 1797, permitting all his subjects to trade with these dominions in goods not prohibited either in national or foreign bottoms, from ports of neutral nations, or from those of Spain, under the necessary regulations, to prevent fraud and ensure the return of cargoes to the mother country.

But so far from producing the happy consequences which were contemplated by his Majesty's Edict, experience has proved beyond a doubt the impossibility of complying with all the conditions required—The Spaniards themselves have misused the favour granted them, and every thing has been converted into a general detriment to the nation, in particular our subjects of America and Spain; encreasing, at the same time, the ...ndustry and trade of his Majesty's enemies, who are therewith provided with the means of prosecuting the war which has proved so ruinous to Europe. Taking these circumstances into consideration, the king cannot delay a moment to apply a proper remedy to evils of such magnitude; revoking, as he has been pleased to revoke, the said Royal Edict of 18th November, 1797; and also every other permission, general or particular, which may have been granted either by his Majesty's or his Vice-Roys, Governors, Intendants, and others in office; the laws of America, and the regulations of free trade remaining in their full force.—And the said chiefs are bound, under their own personal responsibility, to take such steps as they shall think most proper not only to ensure a punctual execution of these laws, but to repair an injury practised under cover of the said Edict, without admitting any excuses or pretences whatsoever, which may lead to thwart the execution of this order.

These means, his Majesty hopes, will encourage the merchants of Spain and America, to use their endeavors to enjoy the benefit held out to them from reciprocal commercial transactions, adopting the usual methods (armaments) and others pointed out by necessity; but should the assistance of government be required, the commercial tribunals of this kingdom and America, may apply to his Majesty, representing whatever their duty shall dictate, with a full confidence that a due attention will be paid to the same, provided they confine themselves to point out the means of supporting our trade and industry, putting aside every thing that has opposed it hitherto, to the great loss of our subjects, and the benefit of our enemies.

All which I communicate to you in compliance with the king's orders; and you will pay the greatest attention to its execution, as far as concerns you; advising the reception thereof, and of what steps you shall take for the interest of his Majesty's government.

Aranjuez April, 1799.

BALTIMORE, July 10.

The Meed of Merit.

Captain Webb, arrived at New-London from St. Thomas, sailed in company with a fleet of 44 sail of Americans, under convoy of the United States sloop of war Baltimore, captain Barron, and the brigs Eagle and Richmond.

Captain Webb wishes to make this public testimony of thanks to commodore Barron for the vigilance, attention and politeness constantly displayed towards every vessel under his care, and thinks that too much praise cannot be given to his affable and officer-like conduct on the occasion.

NASSAU, June 18, 1799.

Arrived,—sloop Mars, O'Connor, Cuba; schr. William and Mary, Mozey, N York; Pacha, Eldridge, Boston; Fetnah, Bell, North Carolina.

Detained and Prize vessels sent in since our last.

American schr. Polly, from Virginia, to New Orleans, partly laden with Nails Paints. Tin Ware, &c. by the privateer Three Brothers.

Mackey, of the Three Brothers versus The schr. Freeport & Cargo } In the Court of Vice Admiralty.

ON the 11th inst. this cause was argued before the Hon. Moses Franks, Esq. Judge of the Court of Vice Admiralty, and on the 14th, sentence was pronounced; by which the vessel and cargo were condemned to the captors, who nevertheless were ordered to pay the Costs of suit, it appearing that undue means had been attempted to influence the crew of the Freeport upon their examination, which his Honor the Judge highly rebrobated.

Upon the trial it appeared that the Freeport had been furnished with regular American papers, and sailed from Boston to Cadiz with a cargo belonging to the master and another American citizen, where the same was sold, and from the proceeds a cargo of Wines and Brandy, purchased with which she returned to Boston, where the cargo was landed, and at the expiration of a fortnight reshipped. The Freeport then sailed for New-Orleans and a market, with new clearances, &c. in the prosecution of which voyage, she was intercepted by the Libellant, and sent into this port for adjudication.

Condemnation of the cargo was argued upon the ground that the same was Spanish property, and much time were taken by the Proctors in their respective arguments upon that point but in pronoucing sentence, his Honor the Judge declared, that he did not conceive the question of property of much consequence to either party, because it was manifest that the vessel had evaded the vigilance of the British cruisers, and entered a blockaded port with provisions, without a licence for that purpose, and had thereby aided the enemies of his Majesty with the means of protracting the war: that after arming in the port of Cadiz, she had again escaped the blockading fleet, and returned to Boston, from whence she was proceeding for an enemy's port when captured; that such conduct was a departure from Neutrality, and in direct violation of the laws of Nations, and as such or otherwise, both vessel and cargo became forfeited.

The Proctor for the claimant, upon sentence being pronounced, prayed his Honor the Judge for a rehearing of the cause upon the grounds that his Honor had misconceived the question in a matter of fact, when he declared the blockade of Cadiz to extend to neutrals, and that the vessel had he entered port without a licence; but after argument, the application was refused.

QUEBEC, June 12.

On Saturday evening last the 8th inst, a very melancholy accident happened at Joseph Savarre's, near Dorchester Bridge on the Beauport side: The following are as near as can be ascertained, the circumstances of the unfortunate event. Alexes Fouchyn, a servant to Savarre, went down on a ladder into a well about 20 feet deep, which had been digged in December last, to bring up a bucket which had fallen into the well some time before. It appears that the well had been kept covered till the time of the accident, and that this unfortunate man, immediately on descending the ladder, was suffocated by the noxious air, which is commonly formed in such places when shut up for any considerable length of time; attracting the attention of Savarre, who was employed near the spot, he immediately went to the assistance of his servant and met with the same fate; the family was now alarmed, and Jean Langevin Lessee, of Dorchester Bridge who was passing at the time, went to the assistance of Savarre, and perished with him; —by this time some of the neighbours had assembled, and Jean Roderique, a labourer, unconscious of the danger, proceeded to the assistance of Langevin, he was advised to make himself secure by a rope fastened round his body, this he refused, and soon met the fate of the other sufferers; a fifth person, named Bougie, now proceeded to descend into the well to the assistance of the others but before he reached half way down, he began to totter, but having had the precaution to fasten a rope round his body, he was drawn up senseless, but recovered on breathing the fresh air. Sunday morning the bodies were taken up with iron hooks fastened to the ends of ropes, in the manner of Grapuils. In the course of the day the depth of the water in the well was measured, and it was found not to exceed 15 inches, a lighted candel was let down which was immediately extinguished; a live cat was afterwards let down, and taken up in less than a minute apparently lifeless, but which recovered on being exposed to the fresh air.

By intelligence from the American consul at Leghorn, it appears that the French general (Miollis) received him with civility, and assured him that upon his proving to him American property, it should always be sacred.

A letter from Spain dated the 17th April says, that letters of service had been recently given to some of their best officers, that several corps of troops had been ordered to march towards Valentia and Alicante—and a great number of transports directed to be in readiness; whence it was conjectured that the recapture of Minorca was the object in contemplation.

Extract of a letter from ——, at Marseilles, to Mr. Young at Madrid, dated 1st April 1799.

"Yesterday I received intelligence from Leghorn, that the French troops took possession of that city last Monday; in consequence of which the British squadron now blocks up the port, and will continue so to do, as there is one seventy four and several smaller vessels lay at anchor in the road opposite the port, where, and at Porto Ferraro, the squadron will continue this summer; so that all business is at an end in Leghorn—in short, in all Italy, there being not one neutral port in the Mediterranean at present. All the American ships, to the number of ten or twelve, left the port of Leghorn the day before the French took possession of it, and anchored in the road under the protection of the British men of war."

Copy of a letter from a gentleman, to his friend in this city, dated

CADIZ, 26 APRIL, 1799.

Since closing the copy of my last of 11th inst. I have read a decree from this court, prohibiting, under the severest penalties, any commercial intercourse between foreign nations and the Spanish settlements in America: it is not yet published, but will be in a few days: it was shewn to me by Messrs. ——. It also annuls the special licences which were formerly granted, and which have been the means of introducing West-India produce in American bottoms. I leave you to calculate the effect it must have upon the price of West India produce. It is a prohibition of Cocoa; but the foreign duty on sugar is not much. This has been done in consequence of a representation from the merchants and consulado of this place, and is particularly aimed at the trade of the United States.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in Cadiz, to his friend in this city, dated 16 May 1799.

"The decree referred to in my copy on the other side, has been put in force in this place, and several vessels who were ready to sail for Spanish America have been prevented. The French Brest fleet of 24 sail of the line, frigates, &c. passed up the streights about 10 days ago. The English fleet under Lord St. Vincent, of 18 of the line, pursued them five days after; and the Spanish fleet of 17 sail of the line and some frigates left this place on the 12th and 13th inst. Their destination is not known. Reports and opinions are as usual various; but certain it is, that we are on the eve of some great event. In Switzerland and Italy the shattered remains of the French armies are forced to retreat with the greatest precipitation from every place they formerly possessed, except Mantua, which is now besieged by the Russian and Austrians. I suppose another English fleet will blockade this port before the news of its being open can arrive in America."

TRUE COPY.

The Bashaw of Tripoli has ordered away the American Agent, who had arrived at Carthagena. Said Bashaw has made some new demands on the United States; and declares, that if they are not complied with, that his corsairs will be ordered by him to take American vessels. This information capt. Smith will communicate to all Americans he shall meet, that they may use the necessary precautions, and that capt. Smith will proceed with dispatches for the United States, and follow his original instructions, which he has received from the underwritten Consul for the United States.

IN THE AURORA

Of Monday last, an account is given of a meeting held at Kurtz's, Hamilton township, Northampton county, for the purpose of fixing on the man to be supported as our succeeding governor, which is utterly false.—the true proceedings of this meeting may be seen in the following extract of a letter from a gentleman of unquestionable veracity and character, who attended the meeting:—

"I wrote you last night in such haste that I could not be sufficiently circumstantial; I will now give you an account in detail. The people assembled at Kurtz's a little before two o'clock, and at three they had pretty generally met. At a quarter past three, Smith, finding his party rather weak, requested those who were for M'Kean, to wait until the rest were gone, as the intention of the meeting was to promote his election. It was observed on the other hand, that by the advertisement, all Republicans were invited, to fix on a suitable person for Governor; that we were all Republicans, and that we wished to have the liberty of choosing for ourselves. He at length acquiesced, and we proceeded to appoint a chairman. Mr. P— nominated Smith. ——, nominated John Huston. Huston was accordingly elected. This ascertained the strength of parties—the anarchists secede—we proceed to business without them—a committee is appointed to frame resolutions—the disappointed seek to interrupt us, by re-joining the meeting, and making disorderly motions—they are uniformly over-ruled—the resolutions are produced by the committee, pass through the usual forms, and are ratified—much chagrined, they bluster, attempt to wrangle, and finally, that they may not be entirely defeated, proclaim a meeting to be held there in the night, which was not to open until all the aristocrats were gone. We had not the assistance of our friends from the river, as S——, and C——, were about settling the assessment. I forgot to mention that the generous spirited Dr. Smith, publickly threatened to sue immediately some of his customers for siding with the friends of Mr. Ross."

Thus we see by what means these friends of equal rights endeavor to carry their purposes, and with what palpable falsehood they would cover the disgrace of a defeat. It should be stated that the Dr. Smith above mentioned, is a cracked brained French doctor, as poor a creature, perhaps, as ever existed—he is not worth another word. The chief justice knows him, and will be sorry to see him among his friends. It is a bad omen of the respectability of his party, in that part of the state; one of the principal leaders of the Democratic gang was one FRIES, a brother of the insurgent now confined—another omen.

The following are the true and legitimate resolutions passed at the meeting alluded to:

A respectable meeting of the electors of the fourth and eighth election districts of Northampton county, was held on Saturday the 22d day of June instant, at the house of John Casper Kurtz, in Hamilton township, for the purpose of fixing on a suitable character to succeed his excellency Thomas Mifflin, as chief magistrate of this commonwealth; and after maturely and impartially weighing the qualifications of the different candidates, the following resolutions were adopted:

1st. Resolved, That we will with our votes and interest support JAMES ROSS, of Pittsburgh, as candidate for Governor at the ensuing election.

2d. Resolved, That John Stroud, John Huston, Jacob Postens, Frederick Brotzman, Joseph Drake, and Nicholas Brotzman, be a committee to correspond with the other committees of this state, and to co-operate with them in all proper measures calculated to effectuate the end proposed.

Signed by order of the committee,

JOHN HUSTON, Chairman.

JAMES HOLLINSHEAD, Sec'ry.

Hamilton, June 22, 1799.

We are informed that a meeting was held at the City Hall yesterday, between the Mayor and the joint committee of the Select and Common Councils, managers to the plain for watering the city, now in progress under the direction of B. H. Latrobe, and the commissioners who were appointed by ordinance to invite and receive subscriptions to a loan of 150,000 dollars, the capital contemplated to be necessary for defraying the expence.

This meeting, we understand, was called for the purpose of communicating to the commissioners the advanced state of the works, the actual expence of executing therein to the present time, and the probable sum it will require for the full and entire completion of the whole plan, by an estimate founded on expences ascertained and known by the execution of very considerable parts of the works.

We learn, that an accurate statement of disbursement, was exhibited at this meeting, detailing, with much precision and minuteness, the sums expended on the several different parts of the plan; and we are authorized in saying that on fair inferences from well ascertained facts, the whole expence of completing the necessary works, so far from exceeding, will probably be under the sum contemplated.

To carry on and compleat this great object so important in every point of view to the welfare of the city, and in the estimation of some, essential for its preservtion from ruin, it appeared that, instead of 1500 shares at 100 dollars per share, the loan subscribed to this day amounts only to 672 shares, and consequently the corporation are not possessed of efficient means to perfect even one half of the plan. This scanty means, in 5 or 6 weeks or sooner, must be entirely exhausted; and of course, unless further aided by the patriotic loans of intelligent citizens, the value of whose property is deeply interested in its successful completion, a full stop (of necessity) will be put to the further progress of these works. The Swift-Sure,
A NEW LINE OF STAGES,
NOW RUNNING BETWEEN
PHILADELPHIA & NEW-YORK,
By the short and pleasant road of Bustleton, Newtown, Scotch-Plains, Springfield and Newark.

THE excellence of this road, the populousness of the country through which it passes, with sundry other advantages, which render it so far preferable to the Old Road through Bristol, Brunswick, &c. long ago suggested the propriety of its becoming the Grand Thorough-Fare from Philadelphia to New York. During the present year, a minute survey of it has been taken, and its superiority over the Old Road, both in winter and summer, has been clearly ascertained.—There are good bridges over all the other waters but the Delaware, and here the crossing is performed with great safety and in less than half the time required at the Trenton Ferry. The road is several miles shorter than the old road, but this is amongst the least of its advantages because daily experience proves to us, that dispatch as well as comfort in travelling principally depend on the goodness of the road and the levelness of the country, and, in these respects, the New Road is, beyond all comparison, the best. It presents none of those rocky hills, which render the Old Road so fatiguing between the Delaware and Newark. The soil, too, for the greater part, is such as to produce but little mud in winter, and very little dust in summer, which circumstance, added to the beauty of the country, and a considerable proportion of shade, must always render travelling in the latter season peculiarly agreeable.

The Swift Sure starts from PHILADELPHIA, at 6 o'clock every morning (Sundays excepted) from the GREEN TREE, opposite the Lutheran Church, North Fourth street. It goes through Frankford to Bustleton, where it stops to Breakfast; from Bustletown it goes through Newtown to Penny-town to dinner; from Penny town through Hopewell, Millstone, Bound-brook, Quibbletown and Plainfield to Scotch Plains to lodge. The next morning it stops at Springfield to breakfast, from whence it goes through Newark and arrives at New-York at noon.

From NEW-YORK it starts at 3 o'clock in the afternoon (from Paulus Hook) and arrives at Philadelphia the next evening. For seats at New-York, application may be made to Edward Bardin, Old Coffee house, to A. Mathieu, corner of Nassau and John streets, to B. Many, no. 48, Courtlandt, corner of Greenwich street, and to Michael Little, at his hotel, no. 42, Broad street.

Fare for passengers, Five Dollars.
Way passengers 6 Cents per Mile.

Each passenger is allowed to take on 14lbs. of baggage carriage free; but all other baggage, taken on by a passenger, will be charged at 4 cents per pound weight.

With respect to packages sent on without passengers, the proprietors presume they have adopted a regulation, which, though unknown to other lines of stages, they think must meet with general approbation, They pledge themselves to make good every package on the following conditions. The person who delivers the package at the office shall see it entered in the stage-book, for which entry he shall pay 6 cents; he will then state the value of the package, and pay (exclusive of the carriage) one per cent. on the value, as insurance, and for which he will receive a receipt. Thus, for instance, if he estimates his package at one dollar, he will pay one cent. and if at one hundred dollars, he will pay one dollar insurance, and in like proportion for packages of any other value.

Very few persons it is presumed, will dislike this regulation; it will however, be optionable with every one to avail himself of this security or not. But the proprietors think it right to state very explicitly, that they will be responsible for the safe delivery of no package, which is not regularly entered, and for which an insurance receipt cannot be produced.

In the distribution of the route, the greatest care has been taken to fix on such places and taverns as always afford a good accommodation and entertainment for the passengers at the most reasonable rates. The stages are well equipped furnished with fleet and steady horses, and committed to the care of intelligent sober and obliging drivers. The proprietors themselves live at the different towns and villages where the stages will stop, so that the conduct of the persons they employ is continually an object of their attention.—They take care also to see that the passengers are well provided for and politely treated at the taverns, and that no sort of chicanery or insolence is practised upon them; in short, they have spared neither pains nor expence to render the SWIFT-SURE the very best line of stages in America.

The line has now run nearly a month, during which time a great number of gentlemen have gone through, both from Philadelphia and New-York. Every passenger has found the road to surpass very far all that has been said of its excellence; and the Proprietors of the Swift Sure are extremely happy to hear the behaviour of their drivers, and the treatment at Taverns, spoken of with the highest satisfaction.
